Chapter 2 Living Things

2.1 Needs of living things

Living things need water and air. They grow and change over time.
Their surroundings provide the resources needed for survival.
Plants and animals respond to changes in their enviro
Observing these changes helps us understand life arc